The Parting of Summer.

BY MRS. HEMANS.

Thou'rt bearing hence thy roses,
Glad Summer, fare thee well!
Thou art singing thy last melodies
In every wood and dell.

But ere the golden sunset
Of thy latest lingering day,
Oh! tell me, o'r this chequered earth,
How thou hast passed away?

Brightly, sweet Summer! brightly
Thine hours have floated by,
To the joyous birds of the woodland boughs,
The rangers of the sky.

And brightly in the forests,
To the wild deer wandering free,
And, brightly 'midst the garden flowers,
To the happy, murmuring bee.

But how to human bosoms,
With all their hopes and fears,
And thoughts that make them eagle wings,
And pierce the unborn years?

Sweet Summer! to the captive
Thou hast flown in burning dreams,
Of the woods, with all their whispering leaves,
And the blue, rejoicing streams.

To the wasted and the weary
On the bed of sickness bound,
In swift delerious fantasies,
That changed with every sound:—

To the sailor on the billows,
In longings wild and vain,
For the gushing founts and breezy hills,
And the homes of earth again!

And unto me, glad Summer!
How hast thou flown to me?
My chainless footstep bought hath kept
From thy haunts of song and glee.

Thou hast flown in wayward visions,
In memories of the dead—
In shadows, from a troubled heart,
O'er thy sunny pathway shed.

In brief and sudden strivings,
To fling a weight aside—
'Midst these thy melodies have ceased
And all thy roses died.

But, Oh! thou gentle Summer!
If I greet thy flowers once more,
Bring me again the buoyancy
Wherewith my soul should soar.

Give me to hail thy sunshine,
With song and spirit free;
Or in a purer air than this
May thou next meeting be.

Select Miscellany.

THE WAY TO FIX HIM.

"Out again, to-night?" said Mrs. Haynes, fretfully, as her husband rose from the tea table, and donned his great coat.

"Yes, I have an engagement with Moore; I shall be in early; have a light in the library; good night," and with a careless nod, William Hayes left the room.

"Always the way," murmured Lizzie Hayes, sinking back upon a sofa; "out every night, I don't believe he cares one bit about me now, and yet we've only been married two years. No man has a more orderly house; I am not a bit extravagant, and yet I don't believe he loves me any more. Oh! dear, why is it? I wasn't rich, he didn't marry me for money, and he must have loved then—why does he treat me with so much neglect?" and with her mind filled with such fretful queries, Lizzie Hayes fell asleep on the sofa.

Let me paint her figure as she lay there. She was a blonde, with a small graceful figure, and a very pretty face. The hair, which showed by its rich waves, its natural tendency to curl, was brushed smoothly back, and gathered in a rich mass at the back; "it was such a bother to curl it," she said; her cheeks were pale, and the whole face wore a discontented expression. Her dress was a neat chintz wrapper, but she wore neither collar nor sleeves—"what's the use of dressing up just for William?"

Lizzie slept soundly for two hours, and then woke suddenly. She sat up, glanced at the clock, and sighed drearily at the long interval to be spent alone before bed time.

The library was just over the room in which she sat, and down the furnace flue, through the registers, a voice came to the young wife's ears; it was her husband's.

"Well, Moore, what's a man to do? I was disappointed and I must have pleasure somewhere. Who would have fancied that Lizzie Jarvis, so pretty, sprightly, and loving, could have changed to the fretful dowdy she is now? Who wants to stay at home to hear his wife whining all the evening about her troublesome servants, and her headache, and all sorts of bother? She's got the knack of that drawling whine so pat, that, 'pon life, I don't believe she can speak pleasantly."

Lizzie sat as if stunned. Was this true? She looked into the glass. If not dowdy, her costume was certainly not suitable for an evening, even if it were an evening at home with only one to admire. She arose and softly went to her own room, with bitter, sorrowful thoughts, and a firm resolution to win back her husband's heart, and then, his love regained, to keep it.

The next morning, William came into the breakfast room with his usual careless manner, but a bright smile came to his lips as he saw Lizzie. A pretty chintz, with a pretty collar, and sleeves of snowy muslin, and a wealth of soft, full curls, had really metamorphosed her, while the blush her husband's admiring glance called up to her cheek, did not detract from her beauty. At first William thought there must be a guest, but glancing around he found they were alone.

"Come, William, your coffee will be stone cold," said Lizzie in a cheery, pleasant voice.

"It must be cool till you sweeten my breakfast with a kiss," said her husband, crossing the room to her side; and Lizzie's heart bounded as she recognized the old lover's tone and manners.

Not one fretful speech, not one complaint, fell upon William's ear through the meal. The newspaper, his usual solace through that hour, lay untouched, as Lizzie chatted gaily on every pleasant subject she could think of, warming by his gratified interest and cordial manner.

"You will be home to dinner?" she said as he went out.

"Can't to-day, Lizzie. I have business out of town, but I'll be home early to tea. Have something substantial, for I don't expect to dine Good bye," and the smiling look, warm kiss and lively whistle, were a marked contrast to his careless, lounging gait of the evening previous.

"I am in the right path," said Lizzie in a low whisper. "Oh, what a fool I have been for the last two years! A 'fretful dowdy!' William, you shall never say so again."

Lizzie loved her husband with real wifely devotion, and her lips would quiver as she thought of his confidence to his friend Moore; but like a brave little woman she stifled back the bitter feeling, and tripped off to perfect her plans.—The grand piano, silent for months, was opened and the linen cover taken from the furniture. Lizzie thinking—"he shan't find any parlor more attractive than his own, I am determined."

Tea time came, and William came with it. A little figure in a tasty, bright dress, smooth curls, and oh! such a lovely blush-smile, stood ready to welcome William as he came in; and tea time passed as the morning meal had done.

After tea there was no movement, as usual, towards the hat-rack. William stood up beside the table lingering, chatting till Lizzie arose. She led him to the light, warm parlors, in their pretty glow of tasteful arrangements, and drew him down beside her on the sofa. He felt as if he were courting her again as he watched her fingers busy with some fancy needle-work, and listened to the cheerful voice which he had loved so well two years before.

"What are you making, Lizzie?"

"A pair of slippers. Don't you remember how much you admired the pair I worked for you, oh! ever so long ago?"

"I remember; black velvet with flowers on them. I used to put my feet on the fender, and dream of blue eyes, and bright curls, and wish time would move faster to the day when I could bring my bonnie wee wife home, to make music in my house."

Lizzie's face saddened for a moment, as she thought of the last two years and how little music she had made for his loving heart, gradually weaning it from its allegiance; then she said:

"I wonder if you like music as much as you did then?"

"Of course I do. I often go in at Miss Smith's for nothing else than to hear the music."

"I can play and sing better than Miss Smith," said she half pouting.

"But you always say you are out of practice, when I ask you."

"I had the piano tuned this morning. Now open it and we shall see how it sounds."

William obeyed joyfully, and tossing her sewing aside, Lizzie took the piano stool. She had a sweet voice, not powerful, but most musical, and was a very fair performer on the piano.

"Ballads, Lizzie."

"Oh! yes, I know you dislike opera music in a parlor."

One song after another, with a nocturne or lively instrumental piece occasionally between them, filled up another hour very pleasantly.

The clock struck eleven.

"Eleven! I thought it was about nine. I ought to apologize, Lizzie, as I used to for staying so long; and I can truly say as I did then, that the time has passed so pleasantly I can scarcely believe it is so late."

The piano was closed, Lizzie's work put in the basket, and William was ready to go up stairs; but glancing back, he saw his little wife near the fire-place, her head bent and large tears falling from her eyes. He was beside her in an instant,

"Lizzie, darling, are you ill? What is the matter?"

"Oh, William, I have been such a bad wife! I heard you tell Mr. Moore, last evening, how I had disappointed you; but I will try to make your home pleasant, indeed I will, if you will only forgive and love me."

"I love you! Oh, Lizzie, you cannot guess how dearly I love you!"

As the little wife lay down that night, she thought.

"I have won him back again! Better than that, I have learned the way to keep him."

THE PROGRESS OF FASHION.—Most of our lady readers, we suppose, have smiled over the pictures of the first French Empire; of the high bred dames of Napoleon's Court in digot sleeves, monstrous head-pieces, waists under their armpits, short clinging skirts, and elaborately wrought stockings. Few of them, perhaps, are aware that they are seemingly destined to wear this very costume before they are many years older. Fashion moves in a circle; the past always returns after an interval of greater or less duration. The indications of a return of fashions of 1804 and 1810 at the present time are too decided to admit of any doubt, and we are informed that the shrewdest tailors and milliners are already on the chase of old engravings of that period.

☞ The invention of a new clock, upon the principle of the thermometer, by the pressure of air on mercury, is creating a great sensation in Paris. The cost of the clock, which goes twenty-four hours, and then has only to be turned like the hour-glass, is not more than a franc.

☞ Tom and Joe were talking over their travels, when Tom asked his chum: "Were you ever in Greece?" "No," replied Joe: "but I once fell into a thundering big tub of soap."

A Sublime Idea.

The closing passage in one of Prof. Mitchell's recent lectures in New York on astronomy, after speaking of the unfathomable distances which no telescope can penetrate, lying far beyond the system in which the earth revolves, and yet filled with independent system of worlds of infinite numbers, as follows:

"Light traverses a space at the rate of a million miles a minute, yet the light from the nearest star requires ten years to reach the earth, and Herschel's telescope revealed stars 2,300 times further distant. The great telescope of Lord Ross pursued the creations of God still deeper into space, and having resolved the nebulæ of the Milky Way into stars, discovered other systems of stars, beautiful diamond points glittering through the black darkness beyond. When he beheld this amazing abyss—when he reflected upon the immense distance, enormous magnitude, and the countless millions of worlds that belonged to them, it seemed to him as though the wild dream of the German poet was more than realized.

"God called man in his dream into the vestibule of heaven, saying, 'come hither and I will show thee the glory of my house.' And to his angels who stood about his throne he said, 'take him, strip him of his robes of flesh; cleanse him of his affections; put a new breath into his nostrils; but touch not his human heart—the heart that fears and hopes and trembles.' A moment, and it was done, and the man stood ready for his unknown voyage. Under guidance of a mighty angel, with sounds of flying pinions they sped away from the battlement of heaven. Some time on the mighty angel's wings they fled thro' Saharas darkness, wilderness to death.—length from a distance not counted save in the arithmetic of Heaven, a light beamed upon them—a sleepy frame as seen thro' a hazy cloud.—In a moment the blazing of the sun's around them—a moment the wheeling of planets; then came long eternities of twilight, then again on the right hand and on the left appeared more constellations. At last the man sank down crying, 'Angel, I can go no further; let me lie down in the grave, and hide myself from the infinitude of the universe, for end there is none.' 'End there is none?' demanded the angel. And from the glittering stars that shone around there came a choral shout, 'End there is none!' 'End there is none.'"

Spurgeon on Modern Preachers.

The Rev. Mr. Spurgeon, the well known English Minister, thus discourses of the style of modern preachers. He says:

"I pray God the time may come when some man may unmask them, when all these wind bags may be rent, and all these bladders may be pricked; when, if teachers have anything to tell us, they will deliver themselves so that all can understand. If they cannot use plain language, let their tongues go to school until they have lerned it. There is something so enticing and yet so flimsy in the modern theological school that I feel constrained to warn you constantly against it. Its mystery is absurdity, and its depth is pompous ignorance. A man with an education that may be complete in every department except that in which he should excel, stands up, and would teach Christians that all they have learned at the feet of Paul has been a mistake; that the old phrases which we have used are out of date, the old creeds broken up. Well, what shall we do to this wiseacre and his fellow sages? Serve them, wherever you meet them, or their disciples, as Job did. Zopar—laugh at them, dash their language to pieces, and remind them that the best things they tell us are only what the fishes of the sea, or the fowls of the air knew before them, and that the greatest discoveries are but platitudes which every child has known before, or else they are heresies that ought to be scouted from the earth."

CONUNDRUMS.—Why is a man climbing up Mount Vesuvius like an Irishman who wishes to kiss his sweetheart? Because he wants to get at the mouth of the "cratur."

What trees are those which, when the fire is applied to them, are exactly what they were before? Ashes.

Why is a young lady just from boarding school like a building committee? Because she is ready to receive proposals.

What is that which can be right, but never wrong? An angle.

What were the first words Adam said to Eve? Nobody knows.

What is that which ladies look for, but never wish to find. A hole in their stocking.

What relation is that child to its father who is not its own father's son. A daughter.

Why is berlin the most dissipated city in Europe? Because it is alwas on the Spree.

When is a chair like a lady's dress? When it is sat in.

If a tree were to break a window, what would the window say? Tree-mend-us.

☞ Fun should be cultivated as a fine art, for it is altogether a fine thing. Who ever knew a funny man to be a bad one? On the contrary, is not he, nine times in ten, generous humane, and good? To be sure he is. Fun, it is a great thing. It smoothes the rough places of life, makes the disposition sweet and rosy, scatters sunshine and flowers wherever we go, gives the world a round, jolly countenance, makes all the girls pretty, and mankind one of the best families out. We go in for fun.

LOCUSTS IN NEW RUSSIA.—In New Russia the locusts are causing a great deal of loss. They march in enormous masses, often covering a space twelve miles by two, and have at last crossed the Dniester into Besearabia. Ten thousand men from this place attempted to stop them on the bank of the Dniester, but were unable to do so. Every possible means of destruction have been put in operation, but without effect.

☞ A man was helping Major Sir to get a safe in his office one day, and not being acquainted with the article, inquired what it was for. To prevent papers and other articles which are placed in it from being burnt in case of fire, said the Major. "An' sure will nothing iver burn that is placed in that thing?" "No."—"Well thin, yer honor, y'd better be afther getting into the same when ye die."

☞ With a child we must not ask sublime forgiveness of injuries—that which would be glorious in a man, in a boy would be pusillanimity; but you must content yourself, at first, with prohibiting tyranny. Do not ask of your child to sacrifice all enjoyment for the sake of others, but learn him first, not to enjoy at the expense or disadvantage or suffering of another.

Life at Pike's Peak.

A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, writing from Colorado city, relates the following as illustrative of the state of society at Pike's Peak. He says: Four weeks ago a Mexican was brought into town, accused of stealing horses. It was Sunday morning, the people were on their way to church; the captors, with their prisoners, attracted their attention, a crowd collected, a Court was speedily organized. A lumber wagon was used for the Judge's bench, clerk's desk, &c., and near the wheel sat the unfortunate man, with one end of a rope about his neck, the other end in the hand of the seriff; he was surrounded by the crowd, all of whom were the jury. Counsel were appointed, and and the trial commenced. It had proceeded but a short time, when the clergyman who was to preach that morning appeared. He mounted the wagon and stated to the crowd that he was late, but if they would give him a quarter of an hour he would be ready to preach them a sermon. A person informed the reverend gentleman that they had a hanging job on hand and could not attend to hear him. The clergyman then put the question to the crowd, whether they would have the hanging or the sermon first. They decided by a unanimous vote to have the hanging first, and proceeded with the trial. The evidence was conclusive that he had stolen the horses, and he was sentenced to be hung. The prisoner begged for mercy; offered two thousand dollars, fifty head of cattle, and twenty horses to be released, promising to leave the country and never return; his offer was refused. When he found there was no hope, he begged them to hurry and hang him as soon as possible. A platform was constructed. He declined making any remarks, and in the presence of the citizens of the town he was launched into eternity. His neck was broken, and after hanging for half an hour he was cut down—they rolled about him his ponchois and buried him.—The crowd then proceeded to the church, and thus ended the first and last hanging in Colorado.

EXPOUNDING THE BIBLE.—A learned pedagogue at Nantucket used every morning to read passages in the Bible, and expound the same as he proceeded, in order that by asking questions as to how much they remembered of his comments, he might ascertain who were the bright boys of the school. On one occasion he read from the book of Job thus:

"There was a man in the land of Uz, and his name was Job, who feared God and eschewed evil. Eschewed evil, that is, he eschewed evil as I do tobacco, he would have nothing to do with it."

With this very clear and forcible elucidation of the word "eschew," he proceeded, and a number of verses were read and commented on in a similar clear and intelligible manner.

After a long interval, when the young mind had time to digest its food, the pedagogue called upon one of the youngest boys, and the following dialogue ensued:

"Who was the man that lived in Uz?"

"Job."

"Was he a good man?"

"What did he do?"

"He chewed tobacco when nobody else would have anything to do with it," was Bob Holmes' answer. The boy was permitted to take his seat.

FUNNY MISTAKE.—A well-known Divine and Philanthropist was walking recently in a crowded street in London at night, in order to distribute tracts to promising subjects. A young woman was walking up and down, and he accosted her. He pointed out to her the error of her ways, implored her to reform, and tendered her a tract, with fervent entreaties to go home and read it. The girl stared at him for a moment or two in sheer bewilderment; at last it dawned on her what he meant and for what he took her, and, looking up with simple amusement in his face, she exclaimed: "Lord, bless you, sir, I ain't a social evil; I am waiting for the omnibus."

TO KEEP POTATOES.—A correspondent of the New England Farmer says: "Put them in a pile as deep as you can conveniently." He has for three or four years noticed that where they were deepest they kept the best. Last autumn he put out 125 bushels in one bin, and filled them 2½ or 3 feet deep. They have decayed but little, and he found more rotten ones near the top than anywhere else.

☞ AN OHIO CALF.—The village of Akron, Ohio, was startled last Friday out of its propriety by the appearance on the farm of Mr. John Dickerman, of a calf of curious pattern. The new comer has four heads, sixteen legs, and is of a white and brown spotted color. It is said that every one who has seen it regards it with admiration. We are informed that this admiration is not unmingled with surprise.

☞ A gentle disposition and an extreme frankfulness and generosity, have been the ruin, in a world sense, of many a noble spirit. There is a degree of cautiousness and mistrust and a certain insensibility and sternness that seem essential to the man who has to bustle through the world and secure his own interests.

☞ If a girl thinks more of her heels than her head, depend upon it she will never amount to much. Brains which settle in the shoes never get above them. Young gentlemen will please put this down.

☞ Where parties are unknown to us, our rule for advertising is to require payment in advance, or a guarantee from known persons. It is therefore useless for all such to send us advertisements offering to pay at the end of three or six months. Advertising Agents, 119 Nassau street, New York, and 10 State street, Boston, are the Agents for the Altoona Tribune, and the most influential and largest circulating Newspapers in the United States and the Canadas. They are authorized to contract for us at our lowest rates.

☞ The Tyrone Star, of this week, calls the Tribune a Republican paper, and says we devoted two columns of our last issue to the defence of Carl Schurz. Now we did not devote any space to the defence of the gentleman named, because he needs none, but we did devote considerable space to the defence of truth, and thereby place the editor of the Star in such an odious position before the honorable men of all parties that, in order to screen himself and weaken the force of our remarks, he must needs make a cry against us, and forth with call the Tribune a Republican paper. The editor of the Star admits that the obnoxious extract of the speech which he published, is the only part of it he ever seen. This is unfortunate for him. It shows that he was afraid to read the whole of it and learn the truth, because he knew that Carl Schurz never uttered the sentiments attributed to him, and if he had read the whole speech he would not have had the conscience to multilate it as he did.—But he says again that if any report is a garbled one it is most likely the one we published. The extracts we published were taken from the speech in pamphlet form, while he admits he never seen the speech, consequently took it from an exchange. We leave the public to decide which is most likely to be garbled.

The Star would, we know, like to draw us into a political controversy for a special reason, one which is unworthy of any gentleman, and which has been manifested towards several gentlemen in this place besides ourselves. But Mr. Jolly can not make his point with us. We stand just where we have always done—independent of all parties—but we are not afraid to contradict falsehoods whether found in the Tyrone Star or elsewhere; and there is no use in the editor of the Star trying to injure us or our paper because we expose the disreputable political tricks to which he stoops. His object is known and detested, therefore his attempt to class the Tribune as a Republican paper, falls harmless to the ground.

PARTICULARS OF WALKER'S CAPTURE.—It appears, from intelligence brought by the Empire City, that Walker and his men were captured on the 2d inst. The name of his second in command, who has been condemned to share his fate, is Ruttier. Most of the men are said to have been in a deplorable condition when the boats of the Icarus made their appearance.—They were all taken to Truxillo with arms and baggage, and the whole were then put by the British commander at the disposition of Gen. Alverez, under the condition that Walker and Ruttler should be dealt with according to law, and that his followers should be allowed to return to the United States on giving their oaths never again to serve in any expedition against Central America; their expenses being paid by the United States commercial agent. The two leaders, it was supposed, would be executed shortly. The party which landed to assist the filibusters were from Omoa, but preparations had been made to resist them, and they have probably seen fit to leave Honduras ere this.—General Charmorro, acting President of Nicaragua, has issued a proclamation calling upon the people to go to the assistance of the Hondurans, but the capture of Walker will render such a step unnecessary.

RAILWAY MANAGEMENT.—The N. Y. World, in commenting upon the recently discovered peculations of some of the employees of the Penn'a Railroad, says it discloses another of those risks of loss, to which this class of security is liable. If these risks were without remedy, there would be small benefit to the public in exposing them. But they cannot only be remedied, but remedied promptly, by the inauguration of a system now practiced in Europe. In Europe no passenger is permitted to enter a railway car without first purchasing a ticket at the regular office. Ejection from the car, and fine or imprisonment, are the probable penalties of a wilful and knowing evasion of the regulation. The conductor simply examines the tickets, and a different agent, at the final destination of the traveler, collects them. They are numbered consecutively, and are returned at stated periods, we believe daily, to the issuing office, where they act as vouchers and checks. Fraud or collusion is difficult, seemingly impossible, unless the clerks at every office and the conductors combine to defraud.

From a column of "Religious Notices" which we find in the New York Tribune of Saturday last, we extract the following. The subjects to be discoursed upon, we take it, do not exactly come under the head of "religious:" but the New Yorkers are wont to call things by curious names:

The People's Meeting, at No. 187 Bowery, EVERY SUNDAY.—Subject on the 23d, at 3 p. m., "The Issues and the Candidates of the Presidential Campaign;" at 7½ p. m., "Negro Suffrage." Platform of both meetings free to all.

The Press.

Our cotemporaries are for the most part just now busily engaged in saving the country! from the hands of its enemies! It has been said that the virtues of a people are not known until they are engraved upon their tombstones, but it would certainly be hard to find the virtues of the political parties of the present day by reading them in the newspapers. Any one unacquainted with the political history of this country and the character of our people, would, by perusing the political papers, be led to believe that a dissolution of the Union must inevitably follow the announcement of the result of the election on the 6th of November, so sanguine are the presses of each party that the selection of their favorite will alone save the country. The political press is too often mainly so for a consideration, and its efforts are directed towards the elevation of its favorite men to positions of honor, trust, influence and patronage; and that portion of the press which is controlled by men who are directly pecuniarily interested in the success of their party, are the most active in the work of misrepresenting and defaming the motives of their opponents. Almost every paper put into the hands of the people is filled with a history of misdeeds and venality which are as revolting to a sensitive mind as they are often farfetched and untrue, manufactured and construed for political purposes. The out and out self will and wickedness of party papers is giving to the political affairs of the country a decidedly disreputable and repulsive character, creating a field of bitter contention, denunciation and quarreling, without a shadow of honesty and fairness, and scarcely an intimation of truth. Principle is barted for gain and position—truth for power—honesty for fame. How far they cannot go is only demonstrated when their career is cut short by some unforseen occurrence. In their dying struggles however they hold up to their readers the idea that the entire nation is arrayed against itself, in a destructive warfare, which can only be avaded by the support of their peculiar principles.

BOOK AND NEWSPAPER TRADE ON RAILROADS.—In England the railroad cars are divided off into compartments, each of which contains seats for eight or ten passengers. While, therefore, an immense number of books and newspapers are sold at the principal stations, the construction of the cars prevents their sale on moving trains. In this country, on the contrary, people rush to the train at the last minute and have little leisure to secure books or papers, and hence the great bulk of literary sales is made en route. To give an idea of the value of a monopoly on any of our great lines of travel, the New York Tribune states that Messrs. Adams & Co., in behalf of D. N. Shear, the projector of the "Newspaper Express," have recently concluded a contract with the New York and New Haven Company, to pay the sum of $5,000 for the sole privilege of selling papers, magazines and books on the trains and in the stations of the company for one year. They have the privilege of renewing their bargain on similar terms. Last year this privilege was enjoyed by another person for $1,500.

THE PARDONING POWER.—The Philadelphia Press, speaking of the complaints made against Governor Packer for his free use of the pardoning power, says that with one exception, he has pardoned fewer men than any of his immediate predecessors, and gives a table of the pardons issued by Governors Johnson, Bigler, Pollock, and the present Executive, in proof of the fact. From it we learn that Gov. Johnson, during his three years, pardoned three hundred and thirty-eight, restored twenty-seven to citizenship, and remitted the fines of thirty, Governor Bigler pardoned two hundred and seventy-two, restored forty-eight to citizenship, and remitted the fines of twenty-seven. Governor Pollock pardoned one hundred and forty-three, restored forty-five to citizenship, and rimitted the fines of eight. Governor Packer, up to the 17th inst., pardoned one one hundred and seventy, restored fifty-two to citizenship, and remitted the fines of fourteen.

ANOTHER CALAMITY.—On Monday last, at 4 minutes before 1 o'clock P. M., the boiler in the marble and machine works of W. W. Wallace, in Pittsburgh, blew up and knocked the entire works into a heap of ruins, burrying a number beneath it. Ten dead bodies and 14 persons more or less injured have been taken from the ruins. The cause of the explosion can not be accounted for. The man who had charge of the engine says that shortly before the explosion he tried the water gunge and found the water at the second guage. The safety valve was guaged to 60 pounds, and the boiler seems to have been in good condition. Some idea of the force of the explosion may be inferred from the fact that after leaving its bed, it passed through and demolished six stout brick walls. The affair has cast quite a gloom over the city and thousands have visited the scene of the catastrophe.

Among the killed, we regret to notice the name of John DeArmit, formerly of Hollidaysburg, who was universally respected and esteemed by all who knew him.

AN AMERICAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.—The Brother Jonathan says there has recently been organized in Richmond, Virginia, a society of "Independent American Catholics," the object of which is, to dissever all connection with the Pope of Rome and his Bishops; and, in fact, to repudiate and protest against the Roman Hierarchy in every form. It is composed chiefly of French and German citizens. This is the first move to establish an Independent Catholic Church in America, and bids fair to increase in strength and importance, as large numbers of adopted and native citizens in every State of the Union, are expected to organize similar congregations.

☞ The officers of our State Agricultural Society have been, and probably are yet, in a pretty bad fix. They shipped a box containing all their most valuable papers and documents on the 4th inst., from Harrisburg to their Fair Crounds at Pittston. It in some manner, however, miscarried, and its whereabouts cannot be ascertained. Unless the box has been found, it is said the Fair must be postponed.

☞ The Philadelphia Inquirer mentions fourteen styles of counterfeiting coin. It is estimated that fully ten per cent, of all the apparent gold coin in circulation is bogus, much of it being so admirably executed as to deceive bank officers and other first class judges. The natural and legitimate loss in value of gold coin is immense. The estimated loss on the coin in circulation in the United States is over $1,000,000 per annum.

A NEW IDEA.—A vote on the Presidential question is now taken every evening, at the Pittsburg Theatre. Thus far the result has been favorable to Lincoln. It strikes us that this is a pretty good dodge of the theatre manager to get up an excitement on this subject and fill his house. It might pay if it was adopted at other gatherings, as many men now take more interest in such things than they do even in attending church.

LETTERS TO FICTITIOUS NAMES.—Attorney General Black has decided that the Post Office Department has the power to withhold letters addressed to fictitious persons or firms, when such names have been assumed as a part of a system to cheat and defraud the public. The fraudulent intent, however, must be very clear.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

BLAIR FURNACE, Sept. 21, 1860.

Messrs. Editors:—Louis W. Hall, the noble champion of the people's rights, spoke here last night, to a most attentive and orderly audience of from 150 to 200 persons, notwithstanding the evening was very unpropitious and threatening. The school house was filled and many were compelled to stand outside. The door being kept open, the eager crowd had at least a chance to hear, if not to see, the noble young Senator, who was frequently greeted with rounds of applause. His speech was sound, conservative and unanswerable, and his telling points were fully appreciated. The speech and meeting was a grand success, and will tell on the 9th of October and 6th of November, in this corner of Logan, which will maintain its past integrity, and continue to work for future victories in the cause of Freedom and Protection.

OBSERVER.

MISSOURI BRECKINRIDGE CONVENTION.—St. Louis, September 22.—A special despatch to the Republican, from Jefferson City, states that the State Convention adopted the report of the committee on resolutions, which declares that whereas, the failure of the Charleston Convention to nominate, leaving the people their choice of candidates and principles, therefore, we still adhere to the principles of constitutional government which the Democratic party have always upheld, and which, if but faithfully carried out, will perpetuate the Union, and disseminate its blessings equally beneficially throughout all the borders of the confederation; re-affirms the platform adopted by the State Convention in April; declares steadfast devotion to the platform adopted by the Maryland Institute Convention, and accepts Breckinridge and Lane as the candidates of the Democracy of Missouri.—Mr. Thurston, a delegate to the Convention at Charleston, spoke nearly an hour. The most noticeable feature of his speech, was the expression of his belief that Lincoln would be elected, and his advice to them to prepare for defeat. After this event, the Democratic party would be purged, and ready for future victories.

St. Louis, Sept. 22.—Before the final adjournment of the Breckinridge Convention yesterday, a resolution was offered, but not acted upon, requiring the electors to vote for any candidate to defeat Lincoln. The electoral ticket was reviewed and all vacancies filled. Convention adjourned sine die.

FOUND HIS MOTHER.—Senator Douglas, with his wife, visited his mother, at Clifton Springs, N. Y., on Saturday week, remaining until the hour for the organization of the public meeting of his friends. The gathering was very large, including delegations from all the surrounding towns, numbering from 15,000 to 20,000 persons. Mr. Douglas commenced his speech by expressing the pleasure he felt, being enabled to relieve the anxiety of the Republicans by informing them that he had found his mother, who, God bless her, was in fine health. He was in no way annoyed by the comments of a partizan press. On concluding, the following question was handed to him: "Have the people of a territory the right, according to the doctrine of non-intervention, to abolish or exclude slavery from the territory, while in a territorial condition?" To which Mr. douglas answered affirmatively, referring to has numerous speeches for his persistant maintenance of that doctrine.

☞ The Chairmen of the People's Party and Democratic State Central Committees have failed to agree in making arrangements for the rival candidates for Governor to meet each other on the stump. Mr. McClure, on behalf of Col. Curtin, asked that Gen. Foster should meet Curtin at those points where he (Curtin) had been advertised to speak, and notice be given to that effect. Mr. Welsh, on behalf of Gen. Foster, declined this arrangement, and asked new appointments, some of which would be in places where Curtin has already been. Mr. McClure declined this proposal, on the ground that it would compel Col. Curtin to disappoint his friends in those localities where he has been advertised to address them.

A GOOD HIT.—An exchange makes a good hit at Mr. Yancey, the southern sectionalist:—Mr. Yancey proclaims that the pen is already nibbed which is to write the story of another revolution. 'Tis more likely that the rope is already twisted which is to be knotted under the left ear of those who shall attempt to create the revolution.

NO FUSION IN PENNSYLVANIA.—Harrisburg, Sept. 22d.—As much has recently been published on the subject of alleged propositions of fusion in Pennsylvania, the parties are informed that the question of fusion has at no time been entertained by the Democratic Executive Committee.

A. L. ROUMFORT, Chairman.

☞ Mr. Douglas, in his New York speech, is said to have intimated that "if the withdrawal of his name would defeat Mr. Lincoln, he would at this moment withdraw it."

ANECDOTE FOR CLERGYMEN.—It not unfrequently happens that established clergymen of all denominatons receive "calls" to other parishes or congregations, and it happens, we fear almost as frequently, that such "calls" are accepted if a larger salary is offered among the indupements. It is not unusual to hear such clergymen give among their reasons for leaving their present position, the "increased usefulness" which the new field of labor promises.—We like the honesty of the Quaker, whose son, a clergyman, having received several "calls," asked him which he would advise him to accept. "As thee preaches for money," said the old man, "thee had better take the one that pays the most."

Five miles up it only weighs three pounds and a quarter. Such is the diminished force of gravity at a distance from the earth.

☞ A touching scene.—The pastor of one of the Milwaukee churches went into one section of that city on Sunday, whereupon many of the excursionists on the ill-fated Lady Elgin had gone, and found in different houses no less than one hundred children bereft of father and mother, and wondering why they did not come back.

☞ The Amherst Express says a lad living near in that town has a sore upon his foot from which a worm is protruding. It has already projected two inches. A few years since he had one taken from one of his limbs twenty-seven feet long. We wouldn't like to live in the place of the man that has that foot, or the one that told the story.

☞ The Cincinnati express train on the New York Central Railroad, being half an hour behind time recently, ran eighty-one miles in one hundred minutes. Two stops were made, at which wood and water were taken, occupying about fifteen minutes, making the actual running time eighty-five minutes, the average rate of speed being a trifle less than a mile a minute.

☞ Dr. Ollier a celebrated French physician, has discovered that bone does not immediately die when the heart ceases to beat. For, after the death of an animal, Dr. Ollier has removed bone from the body to that of a living animal, and the bone thus introduced has united itself completely to that properly belonging to the animal. There seems to be no doubt, therefore, that we may mend and replace our bones, as easily as a table leg.

☞ Tall Shooting—Samuel Hartzell, of the Ingram House, Jefferson, Greene county, one of the five who beat an equal number of Pittsburghers, a year or two ago, at rifle shooting, fired nine shots, across a strong wind, a few days since, a distance of one hundred and five yards, off hand, and put seven balls within the circumference of a paper five inches in diameter, four of which balls struck the black centre mark, the size of a quarter dollar, and most of the others in the immediate vicinity of the centre.

☞ The census of thirty-one counties in Kansas, all but nine, gives an aggregate population of 81,445. The returns to come in will probably carry the whole number to 90,000 at least. It is believed that at least 25,000 have gone to the mines, or left the Territory in consequence of the failure of crops. During the past season 1,651 men, 1,333 wagons, 492 mules, and 14,312 oxen, have been employed in transporting merchandise from Atchison alone across the plains. This includes only the regular traders and freighters.

☞ A young man lately volunteered his services to conduct a lady home from a party. On the way he becudgled his brain for some interesting topic of conversation to amuse her with; he could hit upon nothing until they met several cows. Here was a topic which the swain immediately laid hold of; and with much simplicity remarked:—"Now ain't it strange what a motherly appearance a cow has?" To which the lady replied: "I do not think it strange at all, sir, that a cow should have a motherly appearance to a calf."

A BOGUS PRINCE.—An amusing hoax was perpetrated at St. Louis on Monday, in the Personation of the Prince of Wales and his suite, by some wags. They sent a dispatch from Chicago, saying that the Prince would arrive by the next train, and in the next train, sure enough, there was Baron Renfrew and his Mentor, the Duke of Newcastle. A crowd was assembled, and the ladies never thought of their crinoline, so eagerly did they press forward to get a sight of royalty. The Prince bowed, the venerable Duke smiled benignly, in which the Prince joined, when the crowd offered to take the horses out of the carriage and drag the vehicle themselves. The carriage moved over the whole city, surrounded by eager and excited spectators, and it was not till next day that they discovered that they had been paying honors to a bogus Prince.

PRESERVATION OF CUT FLOWERS.—A French provincial paper states that cut flowers may be kept fresh for any length of time, by the introduction of a spoonful of powdered charcoal into the water contained in the vessel in which they are placed. Neither the charcoal nor the water require renewal, the latter remaining limpid.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Toram's Furniture Warehouse.

This establishment is becoming one of the most attractive "Institutions" of the Quaker City, and the place where housekeepers "most do congregate." Mr. TORAM establishes himself at the corner of Ninth and Market Streets, in 1850, and by superintending the manufacture of every article himself his wares soon gained a reputation, and by liberal advertising and strict attention to business, he was soon forced to add room after room to his establishment, until his is now the most extensive establishment of the kind in Philadelphia, and being one of special interest to all housekeepers, we deem it worthy of this special notice. Mr. Toram is himself a master mechanic, a shrewd business man, and a gentleman. He superintends his own business and may be found at the establishment early and late. He is, in the strict sense of the word, a utilitarian, and the reader must not expect, should he visit his business place, to find a "showy" establishment, unless, indeed, a hive of industry and well stocked ware rooms of large dimensions but unpretending style may be considered showy. The place is an attractive one, however, and especially to young housekeepers commencing life and looking for home comforts. The varieties of style and gradation of prices are such as to enable one to purchase according to taste and with a certainty of purchasing at the lowest prices. Make a note of this, reader, and call at the establishment or send your order. Address STEPHEN TORAM, N. E. corner of 9th and Market streets, Philadelphia, and your furniture will be selected from a stock embracing everything from the best and most elaborate finish to the plainest and cheapest. All orders receive the personal attention of Mr. TORAM and his efforts to please are generally satisfactory.

Dr. Bronson's Blood Food.

The demand for this unrivalled Preparation is beyond the possibility of a doubt, and its sale is becoming as large as that of any other article now before the public. Tens of thousands of persons who were sufferers are now seen daily walking the streets of all the principal cities of the Union, and by their influence spreading the fame of "Dr. Bronson's Blood Food" throughout the civilized world.—But the trial of one bottle is more than we can say in a whole newspaper column. It gives life, health and beauty to the sick, and restores, as if by magic, those who were supposed to be irrecoverably lost. We need only say, try it.

We would also call the attention of Mothers to Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This is said to be superior to any article of the kind now known. If your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, lose no time in procuring a bottle. It is an invaluable specific for infants teething, softening their gums, and allaying all fever and irritation. By all means get the Cordial, relieve the sufferings of your children, and enjoy unbroken your own repose. See advertisement.—Advertiser and Farmer, Bridgeport, Vt. For sale by A. Roush.

Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion.

Another Great Cure effected by Boerhave's Holland Bitters.

The wife of Pieter De Witte, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion. She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some HOLLAND BITTERS at our office, which has given tone to her stomach; her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true. J. QUINTUS,

(Ed. Sheboygan Nieuwsbode, Sheboygan, Wis.)

☞ Persons afflicted with the Fever and Ague should not spare either time, trouble or expense, to procure DR. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS, whose beneficient effects upon the system has been clearly proved to those who have been stricken down in a short space of time by this dreadful curse, whose checks are wan and meagre, and whose nights are sleepless and restless, and whose eyes are dim and sunken, with death staring them in the face, this compound must prove a blessing; snatching them, as it were, from the mouth of the grave. None can know its true value until they have tested it. When all others have failed, these Bitters have restored the sufferers to pristine health. Their popularity in all the Western and Southern parts should introduce them to all families.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere.

☞ "OH THAT THE SKIN of an innocent sheep should be made into parchment, and written on to the undoing of a man!" quoth Shakspeare. He might also have deplored the ruining of men's forms by the uncouth manner in which some ungracious tailors butcher up the cloth made from the wool grown by those same harmless sheep. To see the perfection of the art of working up cloth wisely and well, and so as to set off to the best advantage the forms of its wearers, call at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut St. above Sixth, Phila. and examine their stock of garments for gentlemen and youths.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the city of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature of the certificate.—The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. Read the following from the New York Courier;

ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, or country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Market street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases; packages of 1850 to 1800, and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in the country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we believe less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medicinal use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their mind to supply the necessary stuff from their hands, and not from place it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand that Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a house, should be sustained against his foes of thousands of interests in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

CHILDREN TEETHING.

MRS. WINSLOW, AN EXPERIENCED NURSE AND FEMALE PHYSICIAN, presents to the attention of mothers her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation will allay pain and spasmodic action, and cure to regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to your babies, and relief and health to your infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed, in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its wonderful and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know," after long experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here say. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief may be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful nurses in New England, and has been used with never failing success in thousands of cases.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will also certainly relieve Dysentery in the Bowels, and Wind Colic, however severe. It will almost instantly relieve Convulsions, which, if not speedily relieved, end in death. We believe it to be the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not delay an hour, but procure the medicine at once, and follow directions, and realize the happy relief that will be the certain result. We absolutely assure you that you will never regret trying this medicine. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world, and by G. W. Kessler and A. Roush, druggists, Altoona. Price 25 cents per bottle.

LOCAL ITEMS.

ARRIVAL OF THE "GOOD WILL."—The "Good Will" fire engine company of Philadelphia, arrived in this place on Tuesday morning last, and met at the depot by a committee of gentlemen from the "Good Will" company of this place, and escorted to the Altoona House and Washington Hotel where rooms were provided for them.

Their steam fire engine arrived on Express Freight shortly after the arrival of the company, was unshipped and taken to the half-way house, where the engine of the "Good Will" company, of this place, is housed. The Philadelphia company is composed of fine looking men—stout men to man an engine and take the water, as they did at the Fair at Cincinnati, with their engine, which is a second class in power, but the first class engines of that city, throwing a stream 265 feet 6 inches, through an inch nozzle. During the forenoon, they were taken in charge by the members of the "Good Will" of this place, and shown the sights of our Mountain City."

At one o'clock in the afternoon, the Altoona company, to the number of 30, dressed in white pants and glazed caps, accompanied by the Altoona Brass Band, met at their engine house, and forming in rank marched to the hotel at which the city company was quartered and escorted them to the engine house. Here a procession was formed by placing the band in front, the Altoona company next, the steam engine, drawn by two horses, next, followed by the city company. The procession then marched through several streets followed by a large crowd. At different places along the route boquets were thrown by the ladies to the Philadelphia firemen. A beautiful wreath, manufactured of fine smilax and green, paper, and trimed with gold and silver paper, bearing on a card within the inscription "Welcome Good Will" on one side, and on the reverse side several stars and a shield representing the Keystone of the arch, was presented by Mrs. Fettinger.

The engine was then pulled up to the reservoir of the water company, at the head of Annie street, for the purpose of giving an exhibition of "squirting" powers. She was soon fired and a stream thrown about 200 feet through the inch nozzle. The wind was blowing a gale all the time of the trial and scattered the water so much that it was impossible to form a clear idea of what she could do, but her power was highly satisfactory to all who witnessed it, and fully demonstrated the superiority of steam over hand power in throwing water upon fires.

The trial over, the companies returned to the place of starting, and from thence proceeded to the armory of the Logan Rifle Rangers, where a substantial collation was served up in good style by Mrs. Levan. Ample justice was done to the things, after which the President of the Philadelphia Company made a few remarks, and called up Mr. Himes, member of the Philadelphia Common Council, who responded in a happy manner. When he had concluded, Mr. W. Boyer, in behalf of Mrs. Fettinger, presented the Philadelphia Company with a beautiful wreath manufactured by her, accompanying it with a few appropriate remarks. Mr. Alex. A. Smyth, President of the Altoona company, also made some well-timed and well-received remarks. A number of toasts were given and replied to by members of the companies, and they had a good time generally. After the repast the city company was escorted to quarters at the hotels, and each company cheered the other and separated to meet again at Military Hall in the evening and participate in a ball given in honor of the visit of the city company.

In the evening the firemen, accompanied by a number of the ladies of this place, assembled at Military Hall, and spent the evening very pleasantly in "tipping the light fantastic toe" to the tune of good music. We were not present and cannot speak knowingly of this part of the programme: but we do know that the members of the city company expressed themselves highly pleased with the reception they received from the firemen and citizens of this place.

The company left for home on the Mail Train (on Wednesday) morning, and we wish them a safe arrival in the city of Brotherly Love.

ACCIDENT.—James Stewart, fireman on the Branch engine, met with a severe accident on Tuesday evening of last week. In attempting to pass into the engine house, he was caught between the door timber and the side of the engine and severely injured about the hips. His injuries, however, we are pleased to learn, were not near so serious as they were at first supposed to be. He is mending rapidly, and will probably be able to be about again in a short time.—Standard.

DECLINED.—We learn from the Standard of last week, that at a meeting of the Democratic County Committee held on the 24th inst, a letter was received from Col. John Woods, of this place, declining the nomination for Associate Judge. The Committee considered the matter and finally passed a resolution deeming it inexpedient to make another nomination.

☞ Our thanks are due Wm. R. Boyers, Esq., of this place, now travelling in Ireland, for late papers of the Cork Examiner, Coleraine Chronicle and Belfast Morning News.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—On Friday evening last, the Douglas wing of the Democratic party held a large meeting in front of the Post Office, in this place. The torch light procession, previous to the organization of the meeting, was the longest we have seen in the place this year, numbering in the neighborhood of 200. It was preceded by the Altoona Brass Band. At a few minutes past 8 o'clock, an extra train from Hollidaysburg brought in some 125 or 150 persons, accompanied by Van Tries' Cornet Band. After the organization of the meeting the audience was addressed by Hon. Herschel V. Johnson, of Georgia, the candidate of the Party for Vice President. He is a large man, of rather prepossessing appearance, and a fluent speaker. He was a little severe on the Breckinridge wing of the party. His remarks were listened to with very marked attention by the large audience, composed of the members of all parties, who naturally wished to hear a man who is a candidate for the second highest office in the gift of the people. He was followed by Gen. Wm. H. Miller, of Harrisburg and Mr. Jeffries, of Ohio, but we can not speak of their efforts, as we did not stay to hear them.

☞ At a competitive examination of the students of Duff's Mercantile College, Pittsburgh, held in the College Hall, on Tuesday, over one hundred dollars in premiums were distributed by the enterprising proprietor. The examination was conducted by the Principal and Professors, assisted by A. B. Hatch and R. S. Davis, Esqs. The first premium in book-keeping was awarded to W. T. Beatty, of Washington, Pa.; the second to J. Y. Boice, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; the third to T. A. Perdeaux, Cumberland, Pa. The first premium in penmanship was awarded to J. Y. Boice, of Pittsburgh; the second to C. Jones, Letart Falls, Ohio; the third to W. C. Rafferty, Pittsburgh, Pa. The first premium in commercial law was awarded to J. M. Teece, Brownsville, Pa.; the second to J. Robison, Hardin county, Ohio. Many of the problems in book-keeping were of the most intricate character, and the manner in which they were solved maintains the long established reputation of the institution for the superior attainments of its students. We shall take an early opportunity of laying some of them before our commercial readers.—Press.

QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS.—The law requires a person who claims the right to vote, to have been a citizen of this Commonwealth "at least one year, and in the election district at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years to have paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States, who has previously been a qualified voter of the State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months. But citizens of the United States, between the ages of 21 and 22 years, who have resided in the election district ten days, as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes." Are you assessed? See to it immediately that you are. Saturday, the 29th inst., is the last day on which this duty can be attended to to secure a vote at the ensuing election—as the election takes place on Tuesday, the 9th of October.

PRINCE OF WALES.—The Pittsburgh Chronicle says that the car recently built in the shops in this place, for the exclusive use of the Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, will be furnished to the Prince of Wales and his suite, at Cincinnati, and will be occupied by them until they reach Washington. It is proposed to leave Pittsburgh on Tesday afternoon, October 2d, arriving in Washington on the afternoon of the next day.

Since the above was placed in type, we learn that the Prince and suite will pass through this place on Tuesday evening next. Mr. E. H. Turner, General Car Inspector of the Penn'a R. R., goes to Cincinnati with the car intended for the Prince, and will have charge of it until it arrives at Washington.

POLE RAISING.—On Saturday evening last, the friends of Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin, in this place, raised a pole on the corner of Virginia and Julia steets, opposite their Club Room. The gathering was large and orderly, and the pole was soon planted. It is 80 feet high. On the top is a very small flag, a few feet from the top is a handsome red, white and blue streamer 12 or 15 feet long, and at a point level with the windows of the Club Room a rope is stretched from the pole to one of the windows, from which is suspended, directly across the street, a large flag with the names of Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin thereon.

JUST THE TIME TO ADVERTISE.—All seasons are good for advertising, but the fall is usually the very best. Dull times are as good as any other for the advertiser, for what little is going on they get; and while others are grumbling, they pay their way, and with their newspaper for a life preserver, swim on the top of the water while others around them are sinking. Advertising is the very sunshine of business, and those who neglect to profit by it, will after a life of dullness and adversity discover the important secret that a man makes very little out of this world unless he lets people know that he is in it.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—Godey is always regular as clock work. His book comes to hand between the 10th and 15th of every month, and there is no disappointment to the expectations of the ladies. This number was anxiously looked for by the ladies, as those who take it had to wait for it to get the fall fashions, and they are fine. Every lady should have this Book.—Price three per annum. We furnish it for $2.

☞ Do you want a dish of good Cove Plant Oysters? Of course you do, for who don't.—Well, you can get just as good a dish as is to be had in any establishment this side of Phila, by dropping in at John Alexander's saloon, on Main street two doors above Kerr's store. John also keeps Ale and other drinks, cakes, pies, apples, confectionaries, nuts, fruit, &c. Give John a call.

☞ The publication of the Blair County Union has been discontinued.

LATEST FROM THE WRECK.—The Chicago Times states that vigilant parties are constantly on the beach at work rescuing bodies from the surf. A noble Newfoundland dog has been of great assistance in recovering bodies, but he utterly refuses any reward in the shape of carcasses from bystanders, snapping and snarling at them when any such demonstrations are offered. All the bodies found yesterday were in a far advanced stage of decomposition, and some of them could with difficulty be identified by anything but the garments upon them. It is believed that few, if any, of those in the lower cabin, about all of whom were ladies, escaped. One of the rescued states that just before the boat went to the bottom he looked down into the cabin and beheld many ladies running wildly about in their night robes, apparently just come from their berths. These doubtles still remain with the wreck. There is good reasons to believe, from the steward's statement and from other sources of information, that there were from three to four hundred people on board of that ill-fated vessel the night she went down. Of these, the greater portion were people in limited circumstances, and mostly with large families. It is estimated by good judges in Milwaukie, that over one thousand orphans, as the Milwaukie Sentinel says, will be thrown on the world, and two hundred widows. This is probably the largest amount of distress that any city in the Union has ever known, if we except the city of Lawrence in the Lawrence mill catastrophe.

THE GROWTH OF THE COUNTRY.—The growth and prosperity of this country, in population, products and enterprise, as shown by the census returns are something marvelous to contemplate. If our forefathers of two generations past could behold the wonderful increase in population, the extent of territory under cultivation, the abundant returns from the soil, the number and magnitude of cities and towns thickly covering the country, the vast mineral resources being daily developed, the railroad and steamboat enterprise flourishing everywhere, they would be struck with astonishment as profound as would be the ancient barbaric nations could they behold the marvels which science and knowledge have wrought in our day. In the history of the world there is truly no parallel for the rapid growth of the United States.

AN UNPLEASANT BEDFELLOW.—A few nights since, Mr. John Fulk, living in Athens county, Ohio, was aroused by his wife, and requested to examine the bed clothing, and remove a locust she had heard make a noise. Mr. Fulk made the examination, but discovering nothing, again retired to bed, and was aroused the second time by his spouse, who insisted that there was a locust in the bed. In his second search, Mr. Fulk encountered a rattlesnake three feet three inches in length, which was comfortably ensconced under the covers, which he immediately despatched. Mr. Fulk killed the mate to this snake a few days previous to this occurrence a short distance from his dwelling.

A PHYSICIAN KILLED BY A FLY.—A physician named Friedlander, died at his residence in Chicago, on Wednesday, after a most distressing illness, caused, as was believed, from being bitten in the face by a fly, that had brought poison communicated from the carcass of a poisoned dog. No medical remedies availed anything, and so fearful were the effects of the disease that a few hours after the breath had left his body the friends were forced to hurry his remains into the ground.

TERRIBLE STORM IN ITALY.—One of the most disastrous storms of thunder and hail ever remembered, visited Turin and the neighborhood on the 21st ult. It was, however, near Felrara, in the Papal States, that the tempest reached its highest point of violence. Houses were leveled to the ground, a church was demolished, and the priests at the alter, together with eighty other persons, were killed.

☞ A colored girl, named Murrels, residing in Alexandria, Huntingdon Co., gave birth to a child, week before last, which she immediately killed, and hid the dead body in the cellar. She was arrested.

☞ Fanny Fern says—"I immediately love the man who blushes" Oh, dear; we hope she will not come this way.

☞ A noisy tongue is a sure index to an empty head.

JUSTICE TO THE SOUTH.
A NEW BOOK and one destined to create a sensation.
Just Published.
THE SUNNY SOUTH
OR THE SOUTHERNER AT HOME,

Embracing Five Years experience of a Northern Governess, in the land of Sugar, Rice, Tobacco and Cotton. Edited by Prof. J. H. INGRAHAM, of Mississippi. Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo. 528 pages. Price $1.25.

Literary Notices from the Press throughout the Country.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear testimony, from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South, to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see the book in the hands of thousands of deceived people, who have no personal knowledge either of Southerners or Southern life, except what they have gained from partizan journals, or those who intentionally have written to deceive.—Daily Republic, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This volume is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from an 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.' the pictures presented are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors.—Boston Daily Bee.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul untruths in the 'Uncle Tom' trash of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully hurl back to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of northern homes. The south also should take to it benignantly, for independent of its truthfulness and integrity it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year.—Times, Greensboro, N. C.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—The enterprising publisher, Geo. G. Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book notoriety, is weekly issuing new works of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, unequalled by any in the country. We commend this book to all.—Daily News.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrative of Southern life. The heart of the authoress is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she, in her amusing off-hand style, delineates the peculiarities of a Southern home.—Press.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of striking effect and a wide popular currency: and this is just the case with "The Sunny South, or the Southerner at Home," which appears from the press of G. G. Evans, under the editorship of the graphic Professor. It is vivid in style, keenly observant, interesting in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously springs from a warm heart, and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers.—New Yorker.

GOOD BOOKS! CHOICE BOOKS!!
NEW AND ILLUSTRATED EDITIONS.
THE THRONE OF DAVID,

From the consecration of the Shepherd of Bethlehem to the Rebellion of Prince Absalom, being an illustration of the Splendor, Power, and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd King, in a series of Letters, wherein the magnificence of Judea is shown to the reader, as if by an eye witness. By Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, LL. D. One vol. 12 mo., cloth. 603 pages Price $1.25.

"This is the third Volume, and the completion of a series of works by the same author, on the history of the Israelitish monarchy. The origin under Moses, was treated of in the "Pillar of Fire," and its great glory under David is treated of in this work, (The Throne of David,) while the decline of Hebrew power and the [illegible] of the new dispensation meet their delineation in [illegible] "Prince of the House of David." These works are historically valuable, as handbooks of information relative to the scenery, geography and manners of the Holy Land. The style is interesting and powerful and the work leads us to the contemplation and study of the sublime language of the Bible and the great doctrines of truth it contains, without being, as such books too ordinarily are, either maudlin, stupid, dogmatic or conceited."—Boston Daily Atlas.

THE PILLAR OF FIRE
OR ISRAEL IN BONDAGE.

By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, author of the "Prince of the House of David." One volume, 12 mo., cloth. 600 pages. Price $1.25.

"This work is designed to sketch the Hebraic history during the bondage in Egypt, the Prophet Moses being the central figure, and is a free and striking history of the period in which the writer gathers first, from the Bible and then from profane history a vast amount of material, which by his genius, is thrown into a fanciful narrative of the most attractive character which carries the reader along without diminution of interests."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID:
OR THREE YEARS IN THE HOLY CITY.

In a series of letters relating as if by an eye witness, all the scenes and wonderful incidents in the

LIFE OF JESUS OF NAZARETH,

From his Baptism in Jordon to his Crucifixion on Calvary. By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, Rector of Christ Church, and of St. Thomas' Hall, Holly Springs, Miss. One Volume, 12 mo. cloth, 472 pages. Price $1.25.

"In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of presenting the great leading historical parts of scripture in connection with secular history, so as to present the clear and life-like picture of those events as they might be supposed to appear to a casual observer.—The descriptions of rights and ceremonials, are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict that this volume will be as popular as the "Pilgrim's Progress."—Presbyterian and Examinist.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Dec. 21st, 1859.

PROF. WOOD:—Thee will please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps; neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short. It is coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to purchase any more, I would ask thee if thee wouldst not be willing to send me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture decla

PROF. L. MILLER'S

HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriently, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thining, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L.M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being, per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

MOFFAT'S
LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss or Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-Temper, Anxiety, Langour, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder: they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS, and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILLS.—The original proprietor of these medicines, was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

BILLIOUS FEVERS and LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General debility, loss of appetite and diseases of females—the medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description:—Kings Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds. Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are specially cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system, all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsements of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,

The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor, as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it, and I am not dependant upon any one to lift me out of the suds.

Because I
